

My Little Schmetterling is acerbic love poetry, full of entomological and military allusions in the cause of vitriolic accusation. The opaque nature of its imagery is offset by distinct moods which return regularly and are defined by a specific rhyme and musical character.